

Online Friendships

---

Read the scenarios below. What would you say to your friend, and why? Write your answers on the lines provided.

1. You notice a friend has her picture, full name, school name, and hometown listed on her MySpace page. What do you tell her?

---

---

---

2. Your friend is angry at a classmate and is about to send out an e-mail threatening to hurt the classmate. He says he's just kidding around. What do you tell your friend?

---

---

---

3. Your friend has been e-mailing a boy she met online. He says he is her age. They have never met. She sent him her picture, but he didn't send one yet. He said he wants to meet her this weekend, just the two of them. What do you tell your friend?

---

---

---

4. Your friend wants to break up with his girlfriend. He said he's going to post on his Web page that he doesn't like her anymore, and when she sees it, she'll know what's up. What do you tell your friend?

---

---

---

5. Your friend says mean, hurtful things about a lot of people, including teachers, on her Web site. She also makes up things about people and posts those stories on the site. What do you tell her?

---

---

---