

Name: _____

Reading Comprehension: Job of the Future

Directions: Read the story “21st-Century Info Experts” (page 14). Then answer the questions below.

1. What degree is required to become a librarian?
 - A. Associate degree in arts and sciences
 - B. Bachelor’s in information technology
 - C. Master’s in library science

2. Casey Schacher has an additional credential that she finds very useful in her job. What is it?
 - A. Digital Media Certificate
 - B. Instructional Media Certification
 - C. Information Systems Security Certificate

3. Librarian Richard Huffine says in the article, “I really have an affinity for information and the way people share it.” Affinity means
 - A. skepticism
 - B. talent
 - C. strong interest

4. According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics as cited in the article, where will most job openings be for librarians over the next decade?
 - A. public libraries
 - B. nontraditional settings such as coprorations and nonprofit agencies
 - C. schools and universities

5. What job, considered to also be a good first step in a career as a librarian, is an alternative to becoming a librarian for people with a high school diploma or associate degree?
 - A. library technician
 - B. curator
 - C. database specialist